

DATABASES	DESCRIPTION	ACCESS
BarBooks	Publications by the Oregon State Bar covering a variety of legal topics. Books include summaries and explanations, legal citations, forms, jury instructions, and more.	In-library only; Access from a public computer
Bloomberg Law	Comprehensive legal database including state and federal case law, statutes, regulations, dockets, and secondary sources. Secondary sources cover a wide variety of practice areas including banking and finance, bankruptcy, corporate law, employee benefits, health law, intellectual property, labor and employment, securities, and tax.	In-library only
Casemaker Libra	Full-text access to deskbooks and select coursebooks from the Washington State Bar Association.	In-library only
Fastcase	Legal database including case law, statutes, regulations, court rules, and attorney general opinions. Free state-wide access provided by the State of Oregon Law Library. To use the database, you must first register for a free account. Learn More	In-library & off-site access
HeinOnline	Full-text access to law journals, federal statutes and regulations, legislative history materials, government documents, and more.	In-library only
Legal Information Reference Center	Find hundreds of Nolo self-help books on a variety legal topics including landlord-tenant law, estate administration, divorce, and more. Free state-wide access provided by the State of Oregon Law Library. Login by entering your two letter state abbreviation as your patron ID and your county of residence as your password.	In-library & off-site access
Legal Source	Indexes law reviews and journals from 1908 to the present. Many articles are available in full-text.	In-library & off-site access
Lexis Advance	Comprehensive legal database with state and federal case law, statutes, and regulations. Also includes secondary sources such as law journals, encyclopedias, treatises, and Shepard's citator.	In-library only
National Consumer Law Center	Access consumer law treatises, sample pleadings, primary sources, and practice tools.	In-library only
Practicing Law Institute (PLI)	Contains treatises, course handbooks, forms, course transcripts and more. Practice areas include corporate and securities, litigation, intellectual property, banking, telecommunications, bankruptcy and more.	In-library only
Westlaw	Comprehensive legal database with state and federal case law, statutes, and regulations. Also includes various secondary sources such as national and state-specific forms, journal articles, encyclopedias, and select treatises.	In-library only